

THE WELLESLEY COUNCIL ON AGING, FRIENDS OF WELLESLEY COUNCIL ON AGING AND THE FRIENDS OF THE WELLESLEY FREE LIBRARY PRESENT

DISCOVERING WHAT'S NEXT: DISCOVER YOUR ENCORE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29TH, 7:00 P.M.

WELLESLEY FREE LIBRARY, 530 WASHINGTON STREET, WAKELIN ROOM

The second half of life is full of possibilities! After raising families and building careers, more and more people at midlife and beyond are asking 'What comes next for me?' Want to try something new, return to earlier passions, or pursue other interests that make a difference in your community or the world? Join us for a stimulating evening of facilitated discussions to inspire as well as inform the search for encore opportunities which combine personal meaning and social impact.

Discovering What's Next is a program of ESC of New England provided by a grant from The Fund for Wellesley with additional support from Middlesex Savings Bank.

Reserve a seat by calling Wellesley Council on Aging at 781-235-3961.
