presented by

WELLESLEY 3R REDUCE REUSE RECYCLE

Good Enough to Eat

Solutions for Reducing Food Waste

December 8th
6:30pm
Wellesley Free Library

program includes:

"Just Eat It"

An award-winning documentary about food waste inspired by WHS graduate Jonathan Bloom's book American Wasteland.

lovin' spoonfuls
a food rescue

Ashley Stanley

Wellesley native and founder of Lovin' Spoonfuls, a service that picks up surplus edible perishable food and distributes to those in need.

co-sponsored by:

Wellesley: League of Women Voters, Green Schools, Farmers Market, WHS Green Team, Council on Aging, Friends of Recycling, Unitarian Universalists Green Sanctuary Ministry, Wellesley Friends Meeting, Village Church Environmental Ministry, Sustainable Wellesley, Temple Beth Elohim Green Team, Roche Bros
Needham: Green Collaborative, League of Women Voters, First Parish Green Congregation Committee

3R (Reduce Reuse Recycle) is a cooperative effort of the Wellesley Dept of Public Works, Natural Resources Commission and Sustainable Energy Committee