The meeting was called to order at 8:02 am. Present were Ellen Korpi, Scott Bender, Patrick Willoughby, Michael D'Ortenzio Jr. and Katy Gibson. Absent were Laura Olton and Ellen Gibbs. Guest was Jessica Stanton.

Minutes were deferred until the next regular SEC meeting.

The final steps towards Marybeth Martello's start as Sustainable Energy Administrator were reviewed.

A potential reprise of the POWER TO CHOOSE initiative was discussed and Jessica Stanton and Regina LaRocque were designated to represent the SEC in exploratory discussions with the MLP.

Laura Olton provided a briefing on progress in obtaining the State's Green Community designation.

Katy Gibson provided a briefing on the proposed, new Stretch Building Code and what other actions we might take to support more energy efficiency in building codes.

Ellen Korpi provided a briefing on progress of solar for non-profits and Patrick Willoughby reported on progress at Wellesley College.

Ellen Korpi provided an update on activities of the 3R Working Group, including the Bates School pilot project.

Michael D'Ortenzio agreed to coordinate the off-site planning retreat scheduled for August 11.

At 9:20 am, upon a motion made by Ellen Korpi and seconded by Michael D'Ortenzio, the Committee unanimously VOTED to adjourn.
