

REPORT OF WELLESLEY YOUTH COMMISSION

About the Youth Commission

The Wellesley Youth Commission provides programs and services designed to ensure that Wellesley's youth feel they are a valued part of the Wellesley community. By providing a wide variety of community-based events, programs and services, the Youth Commission strives to appeal to and meet the needs of a broad spectrum of middle and high school age youth.

The mission of the Wellesley Youth Commission is to ensure that Wellesley's youth feel connected to their community by:

- assessing their needs and concerns;
- advocating on their behalf before town boards, schools and other relevant bodies;
- implementing and promoting educational and extracurricular programs that address and serve their needs;
- promoting a positive image of adolescents within the community by creating opportunities for them to interact with other segments of town;
- availing them of opportunities to use their talents and competencies to serve others;
- advocating for the existence of facilities in which they may interact with one another in a safe and positive social environment and;
- including them in the decision-making process of the Youth Commission.

Youth Commission board members for Fiscal Year 2012 were: Chair: Lesley Robertson, Members: Trina Foster, Lieutenant Paul Delaney, Ellen Prives, Officer Brian Spencer and Fran Whyman. The Youth Commission's professional staff consists of Youth Director, Maura Renzella. The Youth Director's office is located at the Wellesley Town Hall , 525 Washington Street.

Programs and Services

Programs offered by the Youth Commission in fiscal year 2012 included:

Harm reduction programs for Wellesley Public Schools for 6th, 8th, and 10th grade students. The Youth Commission offers various programs through the Health and Fitness Department at Wellesley Middle and High Schools. Internet safety and Cyberbullying are covered in the 6th grade, an introduction to the consequences of underage drinking and healthy and unhealthy teen relationships is covered in the 8th grade, and a more intensive discussion on how to make healthy choices and direct and indirect consequences regarding underage drinking is followed up again in the 10th grade. All programs are in collaboration with both Wellesley Police and Fire Departments.

Teens Against Drinking and Driving (TADD) is a Wellesley High School (WHS) club co-advised by the Wellesley Youth Director and the WHS Outreach Counselor from Human Relations Service, Inc. TADD focuses on raising awareness within the WHS community on issues such as alcohol and the consequences of drinking and driving.

Wellesley Fire Rescuers Summer Program is an educational and service learning-based summer program for middle school aged youth collaboratively managed by the Wellesley Youth Commission and the Wellesley Fire Department. Participants find out about careers in fire and public safety and learning basic components of first aid and fire prevention. In addition, the program strives to foster positive relationships between fire service personnel and local youth.

Wellesley Parent and Youth Lecture Series is a monthly lecture cosponsored with the Wellesley Free Library featuring topics relevant to supporting parents and youth. This program offers an opportunity for parents to come together in a community and gain knowledge or simply reaffirm their thoughts on how to support their children or each other in various areas. Past lecturers have been: Dr. Dan Kindlon: "Too Much of a Good Thing: Raising Kids of Character in an Indulgent Age." Dr. Anthony Wolf: "Adolescence: What is it and What can you do about it?" Bill Caskey: "High School Seniors: You can write an early admission essay". Bob Bigelow: "Adults & Children in organized sports: who wins, who loses?" and Dr. Robert Brooks: "Raising Resilient Children and Adolescents."

Wellesley TV & Video Production Summer Program is a summer exploration opportunity for middle school students with WCAC TV. Highlights for this program include: learning the art of program planning; learning to operate WCAC TV studio equipment including: cameras, audio, and editing devices; gaining the skills to produce a public service announcement or news piece for WCAC TV; and a field trip to a local television studio.

Wellesley Police Youth Academy is an educational and learning-based summer program for middle school age youth collaboratively managed by the Wellesley Youth Commission and the Wellesley Police Department. Participants spend a week with Wellesley police personnel where they gain a valuable perspective on the importance of law enforcement with-in their community. While learning about law enforcement careers, Academy attendees will also get to know local police officers.
