

The Wellesley Council on Aging and the Wellesley Fire Department present:

A Pancake Breakfast!

When: Monday, October 6, 9:30 a.m.

Where: Wellesley Community Center, 219 Washington Street

Did you know in 1920, President Woodrow Wilson issued the first National Fire Prevention Week proclamation? This was a result of the Great Chicago Fire, and since then this week is intended to inform and educate the public about the importance of fire prevention. The brave firefighters of the Wellesley Fire Department will host a pancake breakfast and an educational presentation regarding common fire safety tips.

There will be giveaways and more — come and see for yourself!!

Call the COA (781-235-3961) to register!
