

Recreation Commission Remote Meeting
March 21, 2023
8 – 9:30 am

Attending: Paul Cramer, Ansley Martin, Anthony Munchak, Mark Wolfson, & Laurance Stuntz

Staff: Matt Chin

Guests: Barbara McMahon – CPC; Joe McDonough – FMD, Steve Gagosian – FMD, Jonathan Law – W & S, Farah Dakkak – W & S

Call to order

2. Citizen speak : none.

3. Weston & Sampson: Morses Pond Feasibility Study

Jonathan Law and Farah Dakkak provide overview of current progress of study.

Discussion regarding cost of project. Joe McDonough believes it will fall between $9-$12 million with building and construction design documents around $1.5 million. Joe McDonough also suggested forming a “Building Committee,” to gain broader involvement.

Barbara McMahon stated that CPC is aware of the costs associated and is carrying not just construction costs, but design and building documents.

Paul Cramer asked Matt Chin to forward meeting video to NRC so they can watch and have a better idea of the study.

Motion to recommend moving forward with “stick built” option made by Mr. Stuntz

Seconded: By Mark Wolfson

All commissioners in attendance voted Yes:

Paul Cramer, Ansley Martin, Mark Wolfson, & Laurance Stuntz

4. Adjourn

Motion to adjourn made by Mr. Stuntz

Seconded by Mr. Wolfson

All commissioners in attendance voted Yes:

Paul Cramer, Ansley Martin, Mark Wolfson, & Laurance Stuntz