

Wellesley Public Schools
School Committee Meeting
Monday, April 3, 2023
Wellesley Middle School – Superintendent’s Conference Room; Meeting broadcast via zoom

The meeting was called to order at 6:02 pm by L.Eizenberg. L.Eizenberg noted the meeting was being recorded.

Those present included:

Leda Eizenberg, School Committee Chair
Linda Chow, School Committee Vice Chair
Craig Mack, School Committee Secretary
Christina Horner, School Committee Member
Catherine Mirick, School Committee Member
David Lussier, Superintendent
Sandra Trach, Assistant Superintendent
Cindy Mahr, Assistant Superintendent
Catherine Bernklow, Director
Jorge Allen, Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Public Comment was via phone call into the meeting. Nobody was present for public comment.

No Reports from School Committee Members.

Discussion about Town Meeting preparation.

C.Mirick provided an update on the Hardy construction project funds.

L.Eizenberg shared highlights about her introduction in response to the article 8.

C.Mahr shared that her remarks are six minutes. She will highlight several points salient to the motion and items that provide clarification.

If Article 8 passes, the School Committee would have to meet later determine where to adjust the budget. L.Eizenberg inquired if there were any questions asked last week that may come up tonight or that we want to clarify. Medicaid reimbursement is for clinical-related services. C.Mahr shared that we received $69,000 reimbursement from Medicaid.

L.Chow shared that per the conversation at our last meeting regarding Article 43, we may want to engage Epsilon to help with consideration of the comments that have come up at the wetlands protection committee meeting. The Epsilon will send a letter directly to the wetlands protection committee. The wetlands did put out an RFP for this process.

L.Chow is still working on the executive summary for Town Meeting.

C.Mirick shared that there is a groundbreaking at the Hardy School on Thursday morning.

L.Eizenberg entertained a motion to adjourn.
