ITEMS

1. Approval of Minutes
   Ann H. moved (Ann R. seconded) to approve the minutes of May 13, 2019. The minutes were approved unanimously.

2. Honoring Dick Joyce, Director/Wellesley Municipal Light Plant
   The Trustees thanked Dick for his service to the Town and to the Library during his time as Director. On their behalf, Marla presented Dick with Library “mementoes” including a proclamation and two books for the Library given in Dick’s name. Dick spoke about his position as Director and how he was overwhelmed by all the support from the Town of Wellesley for the last 25 years, and how happy he has been to be involved with the Wellesley Free Library.

3. Director’s Report
   Jamie reported on the following items:
   • The Fells Library was featured in the Wellesley Weston Magazine.
• The Fells Garden is moving along, there will be a meeting with the electrician and the DPW over the next few weeks.

• Elise applied for and received a $500 grant from the WHJWC for the Fells Garden.

• Tyson did some extensive research for Beth Hinchliffe who sent the following to express her thanks: Tyson, “you are a miracle worker! I am so grateful—these are exactly what I need, and I despaired at ever being able to find them. Thank you so much for all your work, I really appreciate it.”

• Jamie recently attended the Women Leading Government workshop sponsored by Mass Municipal Association. The key speaker was a former principal of Wellesley High School, Rina Mirkin. Jamie also attended the Aris State Training.

• New updated gender sensitive identity nametags have been distributed to all staff.

• Emma Weiler and Je’Lesia Jones, Co-Presidents of the staff association organized a wonderful staff appreciation lunch.

• The Big Blue Blocks arrived this week and will be the used for upcoming weekend programs in the children’s department in June. The blocks have been warmly received and have had considerable media coverage. Patrons are encouraged experience them on Saturdays and Sundays in the library.

• Town Clerk KC Kato is offering open meeting law training sessions for Town board members – date to be determined.

4. Trustee Meetings FY20
The Trustees reviewed and revised their meeting dates for June 2019 – June 2020.
