June was a vibrant and engaging month at the COA, offering a variety of programs that appealed to a broad range of interests. Our schedule reflected a balance of cultural, educational, social, wellness-focused events, and overall participation remained strong throughout the month.

The Churchill lecture on June 11 drew a full house, with all 75 available seats filled, highlighting our patrons' continued enthusiasm for historical speaker-driven content.

Similarly, the Kennebunkport bus trip on June 5 reached maximum capacity, with all 47 spots filled in advance. These turnout levels reinforce the demand for both intellectually stimulating and socially engaging experiences, as well as the popularity of off-site excursions.

Other notable programs included Madagascar, Cotton Club, and our Juneteenth Talk, each contributing to the cultural and educational depth of the month.

Social events like the Volunteer Appreciation Ice Cream, BBQ with the Blue were also well attended, fostering community connection and fun.

The Boston Public Garden closed the month on a high note with 56 sign-ins, underscoring our patrons' interest in local topics.

Volunteer Corner:

On June 18th, we held our annual Volunteer Appreciation Ice Cream Social. Several Board members helped scoop ice cream and serve refreshments. 60 volunteers attended this event. This year, a Distinguished Volunteer Service Award was presented to Claire Remeika in memory of Frank Lam. Claire has been a volunteer Lunch Server since 2019 and goes above and beyond to fill in whenever needed. It was an honor to recognize her with this award.

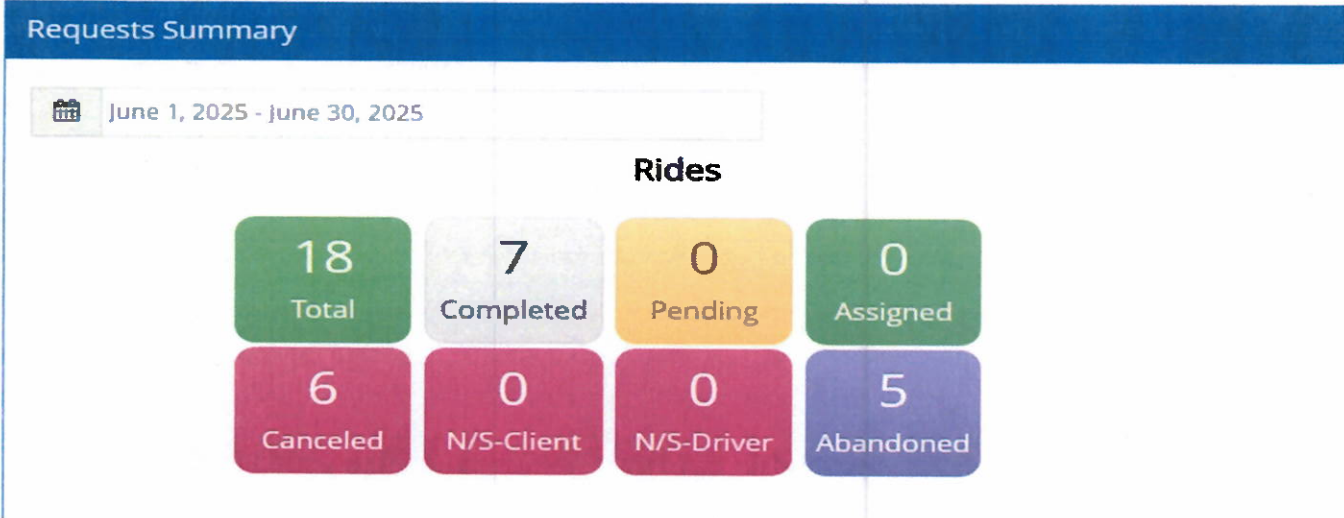

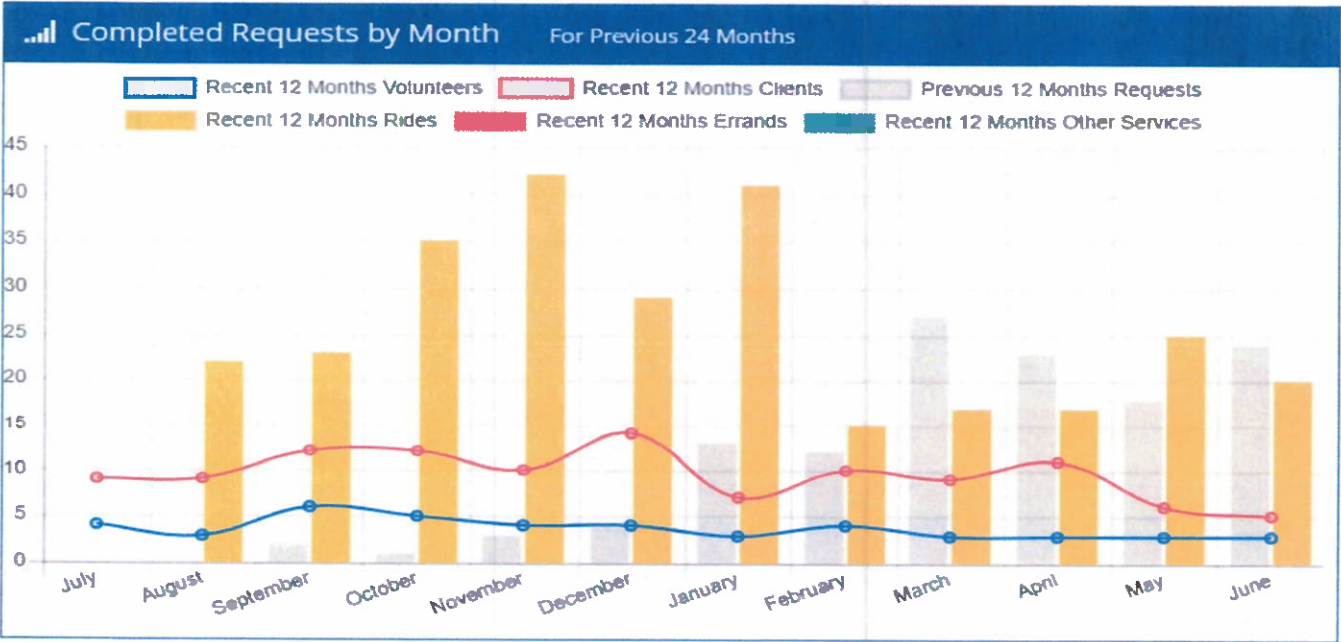

As of June, the total number of active COA volunteers managed by the Wellesley COA Volunteer Coordinator is close to 125. Volunteers log in over 6,000 hours annually. The majority of active COA volunteers commit to regular weekly schedules or are actively available to substitute for absences. We also manage the Wellesley Service League relationship and collaborate with the Wellesley Youth Commission to bring in students. The chart below breaks down the various volunteer opportunities with the COA.

Summer students were recruited to fill in for openings as Greeters, lunch servers, and to ride the bus to help with groceries. This provides a nice opportunity to give the regular year-long volunteers some time off while increasing intergenerational experiences at the center. Some of the students are volunteers interested in accumulating hours for their schools. Some are interns with the Town of Wellesley's Youth Commission program.

As always, we remain grateful to live in a community with so many dedicated and caring volunteers.
