

SAVING OUR PONDS:

What Wellesley Is Doing and How You Can Help

Thursday October 18

7 – 9 p.m.

Wellesley Police Station
485 Washington Street

Guest Speakers:

Julie Dyer Wood, M.S., Director of Projects for the Charles River Watershed Association on how you can minimize your impact on water resources

Ken Wagner, Ph.D., Manager of Water Resources Services on Wellesley's Comprehensive Pond Management Plan

Richard Howell, Chair of the Wetlands Protection Committee and President of the Friends of Morses Pond on how to advocate for your pond

Free and open to the public!

WELLESLEY NATURAL RESOURCES COMMISSION

781-431-1019 ext. 2294

nrc@wellesleyma.gov

wellesleyma.gov/NRC

Facebook: @WellesleyNaturalResourcesCommission

LEARN:

Why pond health matters

What are the threats

Current preservation activities

How you can help protect our ponds

PRESENTED BY:

Wellesley Natural Resources
Commission
Department of Public Works
Recreation Department
Friends of Morses Pond
Sustainable Wellesley
Friends of Brookside