

2022 Proposed Fare Changes*

*Changes approved by the board will be effective July 1, 2022

|                                                                                     | PRODUCT / POLICY                                      | PROPOSED CHANGE                                                              |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | Commuter Rail 5-Day Flex Pass                         | Move from a pilot product to a permanent offering                            |
|   | 1-Day LinkPass                                        | Lower price from $12.75 to $11                                             |
|  | Transfer rules for bus, subway, and Express Bus trips | Add 2nd transfer on bus and subway and allow transfers between Express Buses |
|  | 7-Day LinkPass for Reduced Fare Riders                | New product offering                                                         |
|  | Monthly passes for Reduced Fare Riders                | New Commuter Rail, Ferry, and Express Bus products                           |
|  | Accepted modes for Reduced Fare LinkPass              | Add Commuter Rail Zone 1A and Inner Harbor Ferry                             |

For additional details visit MBTA.com/2022FareChanges

See website for full description and limitations of proposed fare and policy changes