

Colette E. Aufranc

Ms. Aufranc was elected to the Board in September 2020 for an interim term to fill a vacant seat. A Chartered Accountant, the UK equivalent of a CPA, she worked for Price Waterhouse Coopers for more than a decade and is a long-time civic volunteer. For the past three years, Ms. Aufranc served on and most recently chaired the Town Audit Committee, and has a broad understanding of municipal finance. She has been a Town Meeting Member since 2018, a neighborhood representative in the redevelopment of Linden Square, and held multiple volunteer leadership roles supporting Wellesley Public Schools.

Originally from Scotland, Ms. Aufranc holds a Bachelor of Arts with Distinction in Accounting from the Glasgow College of Technology. She has lived in Wellesley for 22 years with her husband and two children and became an American citizen in 2005.
