Energy Efficiency
Rebates 2018

New in 2018 Programmable Thermostats Rebate (up to $100)

WMLP is happy to announce it is now offering rebates for programmable thermostats. One of the easiest ways for you to lower your energy costs is to program your thermostat around your family's schedule.

Wireless –Enabled Thermostats $100

Control your thermostat from your smart phone! With wireless-enabled thermostats you're able to change the setting of your thermostat in a flash. (like when you've left the house for the weekend and realized air conditioning is on)

Programmable Thermostats $25

EnergyStar programmable thermostats are easy to install and set up and are eligible for up to a $25 rebate.

UPC code required for rebate to be processed.

Heating/Cooling Rebates

Central Air Conditioners and Mini-Split Heat Pumps are both eligible for rebates through the WMLP. Seasonal Energy Efficiency Rating (SEER) will determine the amount of the rebate you are eligible to receive.

Central Air Conditioner, with a SEER rating of ≥ 16 (for single package equipment including gas/electric package units) $100

Ductless Mini-Split Heat Pump with a SEER rating of less than 20 $150

Ductless Mini-Split Heat Pump with a SEER rating of 20 or greater $300

Proof of SEER Rating is Required.

Home Energy Assessments are available to all residential customers of the WMLP and National Grid.

Home energy assessments offer a way for you to learn how to reduce your energy bills. If you are a National Grid customer call 855-891-9899, if you heat with oil or electricity call 888-772-4242.

This program is funded by you. Through the Energy Efficiency Charge on your gas bill and the 18¢ Conservation Charge on your WMLP electric bill.
